MORE THAN TWELVE HUNDRED DOLLARS DISTRIBUTED TO FIRE VICTIMS IN FIRE LADDIES XMAS BENEFIT DRIVE

The people of Daly City proved they were imbued with the spirit of Christmas this week, when the volunteer fire department announced the results of its benefit drive.

A total of more than $1,200 was distributed to victims who have suffered severe fire losses recently, and the fire department has requested The Daly City Record to publish the following letter of thanks:

December 28, 1948
The Daly City Fire Department wishes to thank all those who so greatly helped in making the benefit, promoted by their Department for fire loss victims, such a great success.

Through their contributions, they have spread much Christmas cheer and comfort to persons who lost all of their belongings through fire recently.

We especially thank Henry Doelger, the Kennedy Electric Company, the Veterans of Foreign Wars and The American Legion for their help in making possible a brighter future for the fire victims.

Thanking all again and wishing everyone a Happy New Year from the Daly City Fire Department.

BENEFIT COMMITTEE
J. E. Kennedy, Chief
A. J. Bodien, Asst. Chief
A. Benassini, Battalion Chief

When the fire department first decided on a benefit program a couple of weeks ago, popular support was instantaneous. Scores of local families and individuals contributed generously and made it their business to spread the news of the worthwhile benefit.

As a result, people who have sustained unfortunate losses during the height of winter can be sure of two things. There is a Santa Claus and the people of Daly City have a heart.

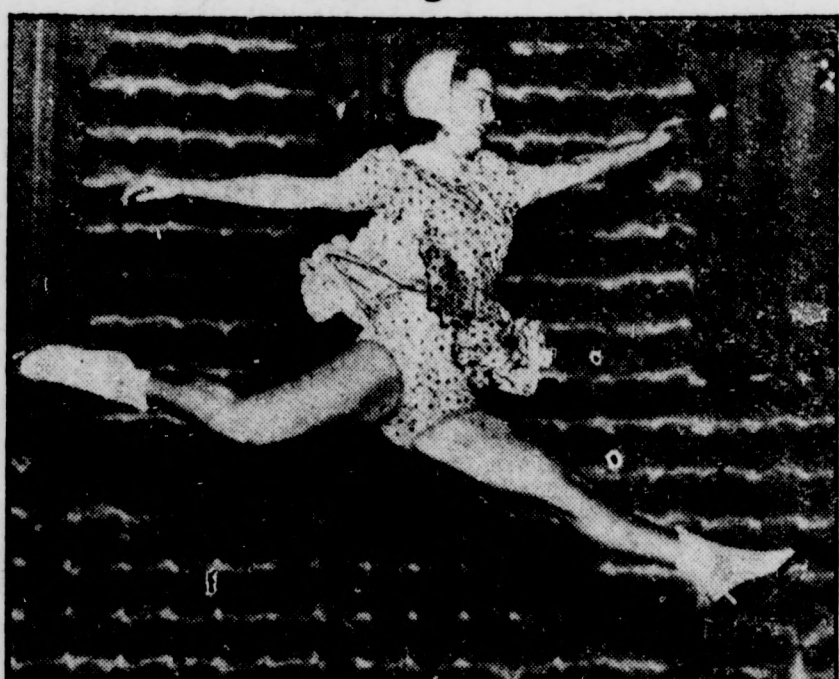

Auto Court Site At Hillside And Mission Proposed

A request by Lyl Ingersoll, builder for H. H. Smith, for permission to construct an initial 20 auto court cabins on the Hillside quarry site at the intersection of Hillside boulevard and Mission street has been laid over and will probably not be acted upon until the city council meets again in 1949.

Action was deferred under terms of a city ordinance which requires that building permits for auto courts be subject to approval by the council. City officials have recommended extension of Brunswick street through the quarry to connect with Hillside boulevard, to alleviate bottle-neck conditions on Mission street between Hillside boulevard and Wellington avenue, at present the only route between Crocker tract and the rest of Daly City.

The first 20 units for which building permits have been requested would be the first step in an enterprise which might see more than 100 auto court cabins constructed at the Hillside boulevard and Mission street intersection.

She Flies Through the Air . . .

JUDGE SWEENEY SAYS NO FINES FOR YEAR

Municipal Judge Wm. J. Sweeney has announced that he will not dole out any fines or sentences until at least a year has passed by.

Well, the judge didn't say exactly that, but he did say that court this week was moved up from Friday to Thursday, December 30, because of Friday being New Year's Eve.

Friday sessions will be resumed on January 7, 1949, when the judge will probably have a busy calendar filled with New Year's whoopeemakers.

To B Or Not To B With A B-B Gun Is Police Problem

Police were suffering the usual after-Christmas blues this week, and were offering to bet they can tell just how many boys have received B-B guns from Santa Claus.

Every year, after Christmas, police receive numerous complaints about the guns being carelessly handled by exuberant youths. Already, this week, several of the pellet-shooters have been confiscated by police. The B-B guns are returned to parents with an explanation that any sort of a gun can be a dangerous weapon in the hands of a careless user.

Parents of gun-toting small fry were urged to warn them against shooting at objects such as lights, windows, and, of course, people.

CAROLERS SING FOR MRS. PETER DORMOY

A group of Daly City Christmas carolers, under the leadership of Capt. Thomas Joyce of the Daly City Fire Department, Co. No. 1, stopped at the home of Mrs. Peter Dormoy December 23 to sing the Yuletide songs to her.

Mrs. Dormoy's husband, who was a member of Co. No. 1, passed away recently. The widow wishes to thank the carolers for their thoughtfulness in serenading her.

Many Applicants Will Take Written Water Dept. Tests

Five male applicants for the position of chief clerk in the municipal water department collection office, and 13 women applicants for a clerk-cashier's job in the same office, have passed preliminary screening by the civil service board of review and will take a written examination on Saturday, January 8, to determine eligibility for the openings.

Six applicants failed to pass the screening process, out of 24 which originally applied. The chief-clerk position pays $260 monthly; the clerk-cashier, $170 to $200 per month.

When written tests have been completed, the board of review will certify lists of eligibles to the city council, who will immediately select one candidate from each list to fill existing vacancies.

FAMOUS OLD NUMBER 14 TROLLEYS GO TO SCRAP HEAP ON JANUARY 16

If you want to have some pictures to show your grandchildren how things used to be in Daly City, you'd better get your camera out between now and January 16.

That's the date on which the historic and rugged old No. 14 trolleys, which have traditionally switched back at the top of the hill at Knowles avenue and Mission street since around 1900, will be relegated to the scrap heap. They will be replaced by new motor coaches which will turn at Mission and San Jose avenue for the return trip to San Francisco.

San Francisco municipal railway officials have also announced that the No. 40 interurban trolley service to San Mateo will be abandoned on January 16. The No. 14 trolleys, although old and decrepit, will be missed when they go. Thousands of Daly City residents have ridden the much-abused trolleys for millions of miles.

The familiar relies have given uninterrupted service between Daly City and San Francisco for decades. Practically the only time they stopped was for a brief interval of three or four days during the 1934 general strike. At that time, people remarked that it seemed different without the street cars, with rust forming on the usually glistening rails.

People will be glad to see better service. The new buses which will replace the trolleys will operate on a 29 1/2-minute schedule to Fifth and Market streets, and on a 37-minute schedule to the city hall.

CORRECTION

Readers may have thought prices had really dropped when they read Mid-City Food Market ad in the Daly City Shopping News this week.

The ad showed 10 pounds of sugar for 43 cents. But don't get excited . . . it was only an error. Correct price is Five pounds for 43 cents.

LITTLE FREEDOM TRAIN TO COVER CALIFORNIA

The "Little Freedom Train" of major historical documents in California was being organized in San Francisco this week before going to Sacramento for the formal inauguration on January 15.

Composed of two specially-constructed all-steel buses, with 14 panels, the exhibition will cover every hamlet, town and city as a major feature of the state's centennial program during the next two years.

Among the exhibits is the Drake "Brasse" plate found in Marin county 12 years ago; Portola's personal diary; the agreement for purchase by Capt. John Sutter of Fort Ross from the Russians; Father Serra's own bible; the first book and first newspaper published in California; the gold spike and silver hammer that joined the rails of the first transcontinental railroad, linking California to the East, and many other items of historic interest.

TALL, DARK AND FICTITIOUS, H-MMM!

A man about 28 years old, 5 feet 10 inches tall, weighing about 165 pounds and wearing a dark overcoat was being sought by the proprietor of Farmer's Market and Daly City police this week.

One answering the above description, who signed himself as "James Fegan," 5212 Mission street, cashed a fictitious check for $78.87 here Monday.

"Fegan" has disappeared. So has the money.

City Council Holds Last Meet Of Year

Routine matters occupied the city council, which met in regular session Monday night at the city hall. The council meets formally on the second and fourth Mondays of each month, holding caucus on the intervening Mondays.

The city fathers authorized an agreement between the city and the United Construction Company under which the construction company will pay for installation of water service in their new subdivision near Bellevue and Frankfort streets, to be repaid by the city over a period of years.

An ordinance banning self-help gasoline stations in the city was introduced, also.

The council received a judgment from Superior Court in which Edward Garibaldi was granted $4,000 in payment for two lots which the city will purchase as part of a war memorial site. An ordinance authorizing the expenditure was passed.

Another resolution removed the following streets from designation as streets of major importance: N. 1st avenue, Hillcrest drive to north city limits and between Citrus and Westlake avenues; Station avenue, Vale street to the high school; Werner street, Market street to Vale street; Alameda street, San Pedro road to Market street; Knowles avenue, Junipero Serra boulevard to Mission street; Vale street, Station avenue to Werner avenue; Market street, Werner to Mission; Acton street, north city limits to Hanover street; Templeton avenue, Mission to Crocker; and Wellington avenue, Brunswick avenue to Hanover street.

A request by contractor Lyl Ingersoll to construct 20 initial auto court cabins in the Smith quarry at Hillside boulevard and Mission street was laid over for future discussion.

Hancock Oil Company was granted a contract to supply the city with gasoline for the next year. Hancock and Rio Grande were both low bidders at 18.5 cents per gallon.

Mayor A. J. Gaggero adjourned the last meeting of 1948 after payment of claims was authorized. Councilmen Battye and Bertetta and City Clerk Ross were reported present, with Councilmen Green and Mooney and City Attorney Hoffman excused for illness.

TIMBER! POLICE SGT. SAWS! WOOD XMAS DAY

It was the afternoon of Christmas Day when police received a call that a tree had fallen on Junipero Serra boulevard and was obstructing traffic.

Investigation revealed that the native evergreen had felled itself on the highway, about 200 feet south of Bell street.

Too big to move in one piece, and with no tow car immediately available, Sgt. Rico Benedetti solved the problem by getting a saw and going to work so the tree could be removed in pieces.

"Fegan" has disappeared. So has the money.

HILLSIDE GROCERY ROBBED OF $2,500

Tuesday was a bad day for Pasquale Ramacciotti, who owns and operates the Hillside Grocery, on Hillside boulevard near Market street, in Colma.

Burglars broke into the establishment during the night and escaped with $2,500 in cash which Ramacciotti had on hand in the store.

The burglars apparently entered the building by breaking a lock on the rear door. Deputies from the Redwood City Sheriff's office are investigating the incident.

TURN BACK THE CLOCK FOR NEW 1949 TIME

Don't forget to turn your clock back one hour early Saturday morning.

At 2 a.m. Saturday morning, according to an official proclamation by Governor Earl Warren, California will go back to standard time, after having been under daylight saving for most of the year.

Many people will turn their clocks back at midnight, thus getting the benefit of two New Year's celebrations within the space of one hour.

Thieves Attempt To Burglarize Parked Cars

Angle parking will cease on Flournoy street between San Jose avenue and Mission street on January 16. And it will be a good thing, too. Maybe it will stop "anglers" from fooling with cars parked in that vicinity.

On Monday night two theatre patrons reported attempted break-ins of their cars while they watched a screen performance.

A car belonging to Harold Hennett, of 31 Regent street, sustained a broken door handle, but would-be thieves failed to gain entry.

William D. Ekman, 132 Niagara street, reported that someone had broken a side wing on his auto, entered, and stolen a flash light after trying unsuccessfully to jimmy the radio loose.

Burglars Take Money, Bicycles

Nothing is sacred any more—not even small change. At least that was the opinion of Gino Rossi, 198 Second avenue, Tuesday, when a burglar broke into the house and stole one or two dollars which was in a pair of trousers hanging in the closet.

Another burglar, the same day, took a bicycle belonging to 11-year-old Richard Watso. The bike was in the basement of Richard's home at 144 Irving street.

Margaret Young, 447 Elm avenue, San Bruno, was also looking for a bike on Tuesday. The girl parked her bicycle near the Lake Merced Golf Club at 1 p.m. When she returned at 2 p.m. the vehicle was gone.

Mrs. Reardon Dies Xmas Day; Son, Mike, Also Passes

Mrs. Amelia M. Reardon, 88-year-old pioneer of Daly City, died Christmas Day after a year's illness. Her son, George (Mike) Reardon, survived her by three days, then passed away after a short illness.

Mrs. Reardon, born November 25, 1860, in Madison, California, and her son, born August 19, 1898, in San Francisco, had both lived in Daly City since 1908. Both made their home at 324 Winchester street.

George Reardon was a shipfitter at the Western Pipe and Steel Co. and was a member of Colma-Vista Grand Aerie No. 1848.

Services for Mrs. Reardon were held December 28 at 11:30 a.m. from the mortuary of W. C. Lasswell and Co. Rites for her son will be held at 11 a.m. Thursday, December 30, at W. C. Lasswell Co. Mother and son will be buried in the same grave at Olivet Memorial Park.

Surviving is another son, James, six grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

COUNTY TO STUDY MOVING OF HOG AREA TO COAST

A request by two San Mateo county men for permission to open a new hog-raising area near Half Moon Bay may result in a "freeze-out" of the hog ranch industry in San Mateo county.

P. Benedetti of Moss Beach, and Archie Rozzi, of South San Francisco, requested the county planning commission to consider their application to engage in hog raising on the 1,400 acre Cowell ranch, near the Half Moon Bay airport at Moss Beach.

The planning commission then called for a study of the present "A-3" hog raising area, contained (Continued on page 4 col. 6)

Street Sign Program To Be Completed Soon

Completion of installation of street signs at all major intersections throughout the city will be accomplished by the middle of January, according to A. J. Bodien, municipal public works head.

Some of the signs have been installed for more than a month, Bodien said, but drilling of galvanized steel poles for fittings has held up completion of the project. In all, 75 intersections will be covered by the initial street sign program. Afterwards, additional signs will be installed each year until the city is eventually 100 per cent covered.

City Buys Two More Memorial Site Lots

Two more lots for the proposed War Memorial Auditorium site, between Mission street, Hillside boulevard, Alp street and East Vista avenue, have been lined up for purchase as a result of condemnation proceedings in Superior Court on December 16 and 17.

The lots, number 11 and 12, block 19 in Vista Grande subdivision number 3, are owned by Edward A. and Eleanor M. Garibaldi. The jury in the condemnation suit set the price at $4,000 for both lots.

The city had previously purchased most of the property at prices ranging from $850 to $950 per lot.

The city now owns practically all of the property, with four pieces on Mission street still being negotiated. Two lots and a house on Alp street complete the total area.

COUNTY CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATIONS LISTED

Examination dates for four positions in the county government have been announced by the county civil service commission. Positions, with final dates for application, etc., are as follows:

Public Health Nurse, open competitive and promotional examination, January 14; closing date, January 3; salary range, $252-$314 per month.

Agricultural Inspector, open competitive examination, January 18; closing date, January 4; salary range, $266-$332 per month.

Business manager, Canyon sanatorium, open competitive examination, January 29; closing date, January 15; salary range, $297-$371 per month.

Mrs. Louise Cook Ill For Holidays

Mrs. Louise T. Cook, former chief clerk of the Daly City water collection department, spent Christmas Day in St. Luke's Hospital recovering from an operation December 20.

Mrs. Cook expects to return to San Mateo by next week where she makes her home with her son Fletcher and daughter-in-law.

Mid-City Market 40 Years Ago

Photo above, taken in 1909, shows the Vista Grande Grocery, forerunner of the present Mid-City Market, which opens its fortieth consecutive year in Daly City with the start of the new year. Located in the 6700 block on Mission street, it is still operated by the Selmi family, pioneer Daly City residents.

THE DUTCH HELP COMMUNISM

For a nation which suffered so greatly at the hands of an aggressor, it is surprising to find the Dutch now using similar methods against the Indonesian Republic.

That their methods are not unlike Hitler's was made clear in the U.N. Security Council when it was pointed out that the Dutch had prepared for an attack even while they negotiated with the Indonesians, that they had given but an hour's notice of their intention to use force and that they had issued "an ultimatum calling for complete surrender on every point."

No doubt, dealing with the Indonesians has been trying. But resorting to the use of arms won't make future negotiations any easier. If anything, it will make them harder, and will also make the East Indies more fertile for Communism. The Dutch as a nation are certainly democratic and peace loving. But they are doing incalculable damage to democracy and world peace both through their attitude toward the Indonesians and the U.N. It's time they showed less hotheadedness and more common sense.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL — DOWNWARD ?

The athletic director of Georgetown University predicts that professional football will eventually drive the college game out of the picture as a major sport.

The day he made that prediction 5,000 fans waited in the rain at Pasadena to buy tickets for the Rose Bowl classic. Some had waited no less than 60 hours.

Most of the pro teams are still losing money. Well?

TIDE OF REVOLUTION

The instability of South American governments is causing our State Department no end of worry. The way military cliques have been moving in and taking over in one country after another has tended to point up the question of recognition.

The Inter-American conference at Bogota last spring agreed to extend recognition to new regimes even if established by force. Prior to that time our policy was to withhold recognition until there was some indication of the stability and the degree of popular support of a new government. Also, in this way we could express our disfavor toward the seizure of power by force and at least exert some moral influence against the practice.

Maybe our influence would be more effective if we saw to it that fewer arms made in this country reached South America.

"QUICK FREEZE"

No doubt Congress will take a very close look at the proposed war emergency powers for President Truman now being drafted by the National Security Resources Board. Most lawmakers will admit that in the case of actual war the President must have broad authority to marshal the nation's war potential. But before granting such powers — if they grant them at all — Congress will want to be certain that they can't be used on the pretext of an emergency. The solons are aware that in the past 10 or 15 years there has been too much "government by crisis" and they don't want to encourage the Truman administration to repeat that practice of its predecessor. Should the planned controls be approved the President would be empowered to put a "quick freeze" on prices and wages, prevent job shifts, impose an excess profits tax and establish priorities and rationing on scarce foods and clothing. That's a lot of power and, like a prescription, should be used "only as directed."

COVER UP

An intriguing story from London relates that Britons who are sparse on top are being supplied with toupees free of charge under the National Health Service. This suggests a couple of questions. First, what has lack of foliage on the cranium got to do with health? It seems to us that supplying "bear rugs" to cover the wide open spaces on dignified domes is more a matter of vanity than anything else. Second, how come the British can afford to spend money for wigs (at $40 per) when they are so badly lacking in food and clothing and are still heavily dependent on American aid? Ultimately, 100,000 wigs a year are to be provided. That would be a cost of $4,000,000 — and that much money would buy quite a lot of more important and more useful things. But then, maybe it's a matter of morale. Maybe life over there seems less bare when some of the bare spots are covered up. Could be.

TELEVISION TODAY

Television now stands where radio stood a quarter of a century ago. Back in 1923 the broadcasting industry was just getting started. A lot of rough spots had to be ironed out before radio as we know it today began to take shape. Now, television faces many of the same problems. It's going to take time to get it rolling smoothly, but, like radio, it will achieve a standard of performance, at least in its technical aspects, far exceeding its present efforts. Television in 1973 should be as different from 1948 as radio today is from 1923.

Selmi Family Starts Fortieth Year In Grocery Business Here

Aileen and Lloyd Selmi, who operate the Mid-City Market at 6716 Mission street, will mark the start of the fortieth consecutive year in business with the start of the new year.

The venture was started by Zaira and Angelo Selmi, Lloyd's parents, in 1909. It was first called the Vista Grande Grocery, specializing in fruits and groceries. The store has moved two or three doors several times in its existence, but has always remained in the hands of the Selmi family.

In March of this year, Lloyd Selmi, war veteran and youngest of the founders' children, remodelled the store, adopting self-service, super-market methods in a comparatively small space. He secured the services of Joe Cadderaro two months ago to handle the meat market end of the business.

Founder Angelo Selmi passed away years ago, but Mrs. Zaira Selmi, who ran the store herself for many years, is still a Daly City resident. Lloyd, the youngest son, is a brother of Paul Selmi, former mayor, who is engaged in the real estate and insurance business here.

ROD & GUN TALK

By The Nimrod

The outdoorsmen of the D. C. Rod and Gun Club are busy again. New Christmas presents have to be tried out. Rods, reels, guns, boots, clothes, etc., all are a part of the joy of the outdoors. It doesn't take many of these kinds of gifts to make big men act like small boys.

Have you ever seen a fellow receive a gun as a gift?

Well, he fondles it like a kitten, shines it, makes believe he's shooting a big buck or a limit of pheasant, and he will talk his head off if you let him.

The stories he tells about the shots he has made are fantastic, and he knows they are false to start with. But the more he tells the story the better it gets and soon he is believing it himself.

A fisherman with a new rod or reel in his hands can stretch a six-inch trout into a shining beauty of at least three pounds and sixteen inches long. All the listener can do is humor him, and agree with everything. To disagree would be to call him a liar and everyone knows a hunter or fisherman almost never tells a lie.

PERSONAL NOTES

Well, the duck season is back. George Archer was out and reports the weather sloppy and cold and an abundance of ducks. Someone must have given George some, for he came home with a limit of "Spoon-bills."

Percy Smith, at the time of this writing, has caught the Rod and Gun Club's biggest striped bass of the year.

New officers were elected at the last meeting and will be installed soon at the annual installation banquet. The date is January 8 at 7:30 p.m. The place, Lovchen Gardens, in Colma. A fine dinner is planned and their own orchestra will furnish dance music.

If last year's dinner is any indicator, the affair will be a huge success. Invitations have been sent out, and anyone who has lost or misplaced his should contact Jimmy Fox at DElaware 3-7222. The tariff is $2.75 a plate.

The next meeting of the club is set for January 12 at the Bellevue avenue recreation house, at 8 p.m. New or prospective members or guests are invited and welcome to either the meeting or dinner. For a good time and lots of fun, come to both affairs.

Gushers Bring Gushing Smiles

Mr. and Mrs. Max Peterson, of Rochester, N. Y., happily read the letter telling them that two gushers, promising to produce about 400 barrels of oil a day, were found on their homestead land in southern Illinois.

INCOME TAX RETURNS START JAN. 3; 9 OUT OF 10 WILL RECEIVE REFUNDS

With an estimated nine out of ten persons expected to receive refunds on filing 1948 income tax returns, Collector of Internal Revenue James G. Smyth of the First California District, announced today that all tax offices in his district are in readiness for the influx of taxpayers on the opening day of the filing period, January 3.

In addition, a deputy collector of internal revenue will be at the Bank of America in Daly City on January 13 and 14 and on February 23 and 24. On January 12 and February 16 he will be at the Colma branch of the bank.

The collector pointed out that any person who received, in 1948, two-thirds or more of his income from the operation of a farm or ranch, either as owner or tenant, was classified by the Internal Revenue as farmers. Landlords, receiving two-thirds or more of their income from crop - share payments could also file tax returns as farmers.

All persons in the above category are not required by the Internal Revenue to file an estimate of their tax until January 15. It is their first filing period. By this time they are required to file an Estimated Declaration, which must be within two-thirds of their actual tax liability. They may file a final return and eliminate the preparation of the Declaration.

The requirements for farmers to follow on filing Federal Returns are not the same as the laws that govern the preparation of business and professional taxpayers. Persons who have sufficient income to require the filing of a return and receive $100 or more of this amount not subject to withholding tax are required to file Estimated Declarations by March 15 of the taxable year.

While farmers must render their first accounting to Uncle Sam by January 15, all other taxpayers required to file the Declaration, must make a final payment, or file an amended Declaration, by this date.

For both farmer and business man, all tax shown to be due on the Declaration, must be paid by January 15.

Income tax returns will be processed as rapidly as filed. Collector Smyth stated: "This means that prompt refunds will be made to taxpayers who file returns early."

What Your Eyes See Isn't Always True

BY WALTER KING

THE sky seems blue, and the moon appears larger when it is coming up over the horizon than when it is riding high. But space really is colorless, and you know very well the moon never changes in size as it goes across the sky.

Your eyes do not always tell you what they actually see because through long habit and training they have become used to adjusting themselves to supposed truths. Your eyes never deliberately try to fool you, but they do draw some very wrong conclusions sometimes.

Try this: Draw a horizontal line one inch long. From the middle point of the line draw a vertical line one inch long. The vertical

DON'T ALWAYS BELIEVE WHAT YOUR EYES TELL YOU--

FOR INSTANCE, A VERTICAL LINE LOOKS LONGER THAN A HORIZONTAL ONE-- BUT THESE TWO LINES ARE THE SAME LENGTH.

A BLACK SQUARE, THE SAME SIZE AS A LIGHT SQUARE, WILL APPEAR SMALLER THAN THE LIGHT ONE-- line will look much longer than the horizontal line.

SOMETIMES these eye tricks can be used to help overcome some slight defect.

A short and tubby person should wear clothes with rather prominent vertical stripes. This will tend to stretch the wearer out a bit. On the other hand, tall people can look less beany by wearing horizontal stripes or a wide bow tie. Short girls should never wear close-fitting hats. Tall girls carry best the big-brimmed headgear.

Architects employ many eye tricks to get the effects they want. The Parthenon at Athens is still considered to be a first-rate example of optical illusions in buildings. Its majestic pillars, 34 feet high, bulge out three-quarters of an inch in the center because the Greek architects knew a tall pillar with straight sides appeared thin in the center section. So the three-quarter-inch bulge makes the eye tell the brain the pillars are straight. The Greeks tricked the eye into fooling the mind.

GOING back to wearing apparel, dark clothes will appear to reduce bulkiness, whereas light clothes will make a person look larger than he really is. Long overcoats make tall people shorter. Square-toed shoes make feet look bigger. Spectacles broaden a narrow face.

Here's another interesting experiment to prove your eyes can make you change your mind. Draw two circles about the size of a dime and about two inches apart on a piece of paper. Hold the paper out at arm-length and try to look through the paper between the two circles. You will see the circles move together to make one, and then suddenly you will notice not one or two, but THREE circles.

Next time you are tempted to say, "I know it for a fact; I saw it with my own eyes," pause and think of all the queer tricks your eyes have played on you.

On the other hand, don't overlook using these optical illusions to your own advantage when it comes to the matter of dressing up smartly and in a manner that best suits your figure.

GOOD SUBJECT
Ronnie, the 14-year-old son of George Burns and Gracie Allen, wrote a piece for his school paper, "Ten Ways to Bring Up Your Parents."

It's an Idea

EVERY youngster who is of junior high school age or older should have at least one activity outside his school work. Organizations, such as the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Campfire Girls and others, are ideal. Athletics, hobby groups, church and social clubs are equally good. Sometimes older folks say that boys and girls who make low grades shouldn't have outside activities, but more often than not these interests help grades. Too many activities might be a fault, but there's a lot of truth in the saying that the more a person has to do, the more he can accomplish. Most star athletes make good grades.

First Impressions Are Important

BUSINESS firms are becoming more strict in requirements for employees, particularly concerning the impression workers create with customers. That is why first impressions are taking on a new importance, especially if you are applying for a job.

The other day a girl came into an office looking for work. She was well-dressed and looked smart and competent, but she spoiled the effect by a mouthful of gum which she chomped steadily while she talked. Even in the classroom this is frowned upon but business offices refuse to have their staffs looking like a herd of cows. If you want to make a good first impression, park your gum before you go for that important interview.

Another day a girl came in wearing slacks and an open-necked shirt. If she had been applying for a job in a factory, her clothes might have been overlooked, but to come into discuss an office position in such an outfit would kill her chances with most businessmen.

HI-LITES AT C.C.S.F.

By Frank Galo

While the rest of the bay area schools continued their Christmas vacation, City College students returned to the old grind last Monday.

The short sixteen-day vacation found most students working in the post office or department stores. All this in a negative effort since all the money earned disappeared in the form of Christmas gifts. With the Xmas spirit reigning supreme, homework assignments were forgotten and Monday was a blue Monday at its best. So, you see, college life is not all football, dances, and fooling around. You have to study now and then.

Daily City Stars

Contributing to City College's athletic success during 1948 were three Daily City men. They were Don Moretini, Joe Vucosovic, and Neil Decker.

Moretini, ex-Commerce prep star, played football on the Ram eleven. He was mentioned as an All-Conference guard although early season injuries prevented him from gaining a first string berth on the mythical team. The speedy Moretini was the sparkplug of the Ram line along with center Burl Toler. Moretini plans to enter California and major in business administration.

Handsome Joe Vucosovic is one of the outstanding men on Roy Diederichsen's boxing team. Joe, a war veteran, is majoring in engineering. Post graduate plans include a soft job in Samoa along with teammate Frank Suga. Vucosovic rose to prominence after a good showing in intramural circles to become the top middleweight on the varsity.

Decker carried Daily City's colors to the soccer field where he played good ball consistently. The Mission graduate played a leading role in holding Stanford to a 2-2 tie.

SPORTS

Football: As expected, Coach Grover Klemmer's juggernaut won the first annual Gold Dust Bowl game by defeating Chaffey JC, 20-7, at Corbus Field, Vallejo. Scoring for the locals were Ray Pozner (on a 10-yard pass from Bob Toquinto), Bob Gifford (two-yard drive), and Don Stillwell (on a 59-yard pass - run play). Julian Bala converted twice.

Burl Toler won the trophy for being the outstanding man on the field. He was terrific on defense as was the fabulous Ollie Matson. Matson is just as great on defense as on offense. Play of the evening was Kenny White's 63-yard run on an intercepted pass. White, an underrated player throughout the year, was always a great defensive back when the pressure was on.

Basketball: Coach Ralph Hillman's boys took their fifth win in five starts by defeating El Camino JC, 58-39. Kev Duggan was high with 13 points, followed by Jim Caldwell and Doug Truelsen with 11 apiece. More about this team next week.

DIS AN' DAT

City College was saddened by the death of Dolph Pippus, former CCSF basketball star, on Christmas eve. Pippus was killed in an accident while driving a mail truck.

Pictures were being taken this week for CCSF's first journal, Ram Pages.

Preparations were made for the colorful Mardi Gras scheduled for January 14.

County To Study Moving Of Hogs

In about 500 acres west of Colma, where the Broadmoor residential subdivision expansion is a threat to present hog raising area.

Commission Secretary Frank Skillman stated that the county has three alternatives:

1. To do nothing, and permit the expansion of residential areas near the "A-3" zone to finally freeze out hog raising in the county.
2. To extend the present Colma hog-raising area southward.
3. To open up a new hog-raising zone further south along the coastal area.

The hog industry in San Mateo county, dependent upon the hauling of swill in commercial trucks from bay area cities, has long been a target of householders in northern San Mateo county.

'DAGWOOD' IS LOST CAN YOU FIND HIM?

If you see "Dagwood" running around the streets, call Mrs. Erna McCowen, of 167 Santa Cruz avenue, at Juniper 5-1981.

"Dagwood" is a small black dog, part Spitz and part Collie, with one black eye. He was lost on Mission street on Tuesday.

The McCowen children, Philip, 10, and Linda, 7, would appreciate his return.

To Know Jesus Is Highest, Greatest End of Knowledge

FOR the next six months Sunday schools will be studying the life of Jesus, the greatest of all studies, and which should be the end and object of all whatever their source or nature. To know Him, and the power of His resurrection, as Paul said, is the highest and greatest end of all knowledge.

These brief weekly comments on the life of Jesus will not follow any prescribed plan or be confined to particular incidents. It will be my effort so to present the backgrounds, atmosphere and environment of the earthly life of Jesus to bring full light upon the revelation of God that He brought to men.

I will try to make evident the reality and power of the Gospel in His words and acts, His life, death and resurrection, and to bring the full bearing of that Gospel upon our lives today.

The chief background of the life of Jesus is in the Old Testament, the record of the religion of a people, His people, and the highlights of religious experience of saints, poets, and prophets. Their words and deeds made known the nature and power of righteousness and the richest wisdom concerning life that the world had known.

It was of all this that Jesus said that He had come, not to destroy but to fulfill. It was in the words of Isaiah that He announced His mission.

Jesus knew His Bible. And every one who would know Jesus must know the Bible. In it are not only the backgrounds of His life, but it is the only ultimate source of our knowledge of what He said and did.

The atmosphere and environment of the life of Jesus are equally manifest in the Gospels. In that little land of Palestine in the time of Jesus was every phase and aspect of climate and nature, symbolic of the phases and aspects of life itself.

And in little Palestine the human atmosphere and environment are remarkable—dense populations in a small area, great caravans passing through on the trade routes between East and West, North and South, typical of the world of all races and peoples where Jesus came to bless.

COUNTY AND STATE AUTHORITIES WILL INVESTIGATE CABBAGE PATCH

Last week's shooting and suicide at the Cabbage Patch, in which Joe Mung, 43, of Santa Cruz, wounded Joy Toy, 40, and then killed himself in an argument over borrowed money, started off a number of developments with regard to the Oriental gaming club.

First, the newly-organized county grand jury declared an investigation of the Chinese gambling picture throughout San Mateo county. Dr. S. J. Guardino, of the grand jury law enforcement committee, said the investigation may include the use of Oriental undercover men to obtain evidence at such establishments. Law enforcement agencies have stated their apparent inability to control the clubs is due to the fact it has been impossible to get white undercover agents into the establishments to obtain evidence as to unlawful practices.

Second, Doctor Guardino met with District Attorney Gilbert Ferrill and demanded a full scale investigation of the circumstances leading to the Cabbage Patch shooting, as well as a report on the entire establishment, its ownership, etc.

Thirdly, Governor Warren's Organized Crime Commission interested itself in the Cabbage Patch operation by launching an investigation of card clubs throughout the state. The Cabbage Patch is a licensed card room, paying a $15 application fee to the county for the privilege.

And Joseph A. Ernst, former San Mateo county grand jury foreman, said that he, as well as other civic leaders throughout the county, was demanding the closing of such establishments.

Doctor Guardino said his law enforcement committee will delve into the matter and present a full report to the entire grand jury at its next meeting January 5.

Meanwhile, Supervisor Thomas L. Hickey, elected from the first township, in which the Cabbage Patch is located, declared the county license law should be

This is the seventeenth of a series on the Infantry and Armored Divisions of the new National Guard. They are presented to acquaint you with the organization which will be an M-Day Force, trained, equipped and available for immediate service with the Regular Army in the event of any emergency.

42ND INFANTRY DIVISION—Organized from National Guard troops for World War I, as non-guardsmen in World War II, the legendary 42nd "Rainbow" Division has returned to the Guard in the postwar military establishment.

"The Fighting 688th," which earned undying fame as one of the Rainbow Division's Infantry regiments in World War I, has been redesignated the 168th Infantry and is once more an integral part of the Division. It is located in the metropolitan New York area, as are the other two Regiments, the 71st and the 108th, and other elements of the division.

The 42nd Division earned its nickname as the "Rainbow Division" because its troops were drawn from National Guard outfits of 28 States and the District of Columbia when it was first formed in August, 1917. Three months later it was in France, and in March, 1918, it went into the line in the Lunenburg sector. It was in the Champagne-Marne and Aisne-Marne offensives that the Rainbow Division made its reputation, emerging from the war as one of the most celebrated organizations in history.

As a Non-Guard Division in World War II, the 42nd was re-activated and trained too late for the Normandy landing but made up for lost time when it went into action in December, 1944, as part of the Seventh Army's right flank at Saarbrücken. It made its first penetration of Germany in March, 1945, driving through the Harz Mountains. Later it rolled 25 miles east of the Rhine, taking Furth and Schweinfurt, and adding Schweinfurt in May. The men of the 42nd entered Munich and were co-liberators of 32,000 victims of the torture camp at Dachau. They drove into Austria, and then—shortly after VE Day—occupied Ritzbach, German film capital.

P.G. and E. adds 404,000 new electrical horsepower in 1948 and 1½ million more on the way

Record power growth. P.G. and E. began building new power plants immediately after V-J Day. 404,000 new horsepower were installed this year. 1½ million more will be added in the next 3 years.

$300,000,000 already invested. Most of the money for expansion comes from invested savings of thousands of people—many of them your friends and neighbors. They are the real P.G. and E. builders.

148,000 stockholders, mostly Californians, have put their savings in P.G. and E., becoming partners in one great enterprise. Few companies in the entire nation are more widely owned.

7,000 new jobs

More than 7,000 jobs have been created by the expansion. This additional payroll has materially helped all sorts of business throughout the area we serve.

Still more generating plants, both steam and hydro, are being built to meet the growing demand. In 1948 alone nearly 70,000 new customers were connected to our lines!

It all adds up to the biggest power-building program in America today... going full speed ahead for the factories, farms and homes of Northern and Central California.

Work never stops on our power-building program

STRICTLY FRESH

THE New York author of "How to Commit Murder and Get Away With It" got a life sentence for his fourth felony—a robbery. Such is the fate of modern man and his over-specialization.

NOW'S TIME TO APPLY FOR STATE VET PLAN

Veterans planning to take advantage of State educational assistance for the first time in the coming spring semester are urged by Floyd D. Granger, San Mateo County Veterans Service Officer to apply now for their certificates of eligibility.

This certificate is the first step in qualifying for State payment of tuition fees, books and supplies and a subsistence allotment of $40 a month. Granger pointed out:

His office at the courthouse in Redwood City will assist eligible veterans (those who are natives of or entered service from California) to complete not only the certificate of eligibility application, but also the separate application for educational assistance which is the next step involved. Veterans should bring with them a copy (both sides) of their discharge.

RAILROAD CROSSINGS

Wise motorists always watch out for that second track at railroad crossings. Many a motorist has waited patiently for the first train to pass, then moved onto the tracks without seeing that second train.

HOW-TO-FIX-IT

By TOM GREGORY

MOTORISTS WHO HAVE BEEN STRANDED ON DESOLATE HIGHWAYS WITH BOILING RADIATORS WILL KNOW THE VALUE OF AN EMERGENCY WATER PAIL THAT CAN BE CARRIED IN THE TOOL KIT. IT CAN BE MADE BY CUTTING HANDLES ON A SECTION OF OLD INNER TUBE AS SHOWN.

A PIECE OF THIN SPRING STEEL, SHAPED AS ILLUSTRATED, MAKES A GOOD HANDLE TO LIFT TIN CANS USED AS CONTAINERS FOR HEATING LIQUIDS.

S.F. Planetarium Plans Speeded

San Francisco's Morrison Memorial Planetarium, to be constructed in Golden Gate Park on a site between Steinhart Aquarium and African Hall, will be a strictly San Francisco project, according to Dr. Robert Miller, director of the California Academy of Sciences.

Money for the planetarium was raised by public subscription and a $200,000 bequest from the May T. Morrison Estate. And plans for the structure were designed by members of the Academy's staff, including the projector which, through holes on its surface containing lenses, will project more than 9000 stars on the "ceiling of the sky" in their proper relation to one another and to the earth.

The projector was designed and built by Dr. G. Dallas Hanna and A. S. Getten and will be an original design built to eliminate the faults of the Zeiss projectors which other planetaria use.

BETTER THAN ZEISS

The projector will have better precision, say its designers, through the use of electronics and servo mechanism, than the mechanical Zeiss. And to eliminate the distortion factor, it will be round, as the earth, and the images will be projected on a line outward from the center of the globe to their positions on the heavenly ceiling. The illusion, of course, will be that of stars and planets shining onto the globe. Two years will be required for its completion.

When finished, the instrument will be a spun metal globe approximately four feet in diameter, its center about seven feet from the floor. It will run automatically, coordinated with a recorded lecture, and it can be regulated to illustrate first hand lectures on past, present and future astronomy.

Turns Out OK In End

Abbreviations speed up operations but sometimes can confuse folks. In Newport Beach a customer of Bank of America sent in a check for deposit but forgot to endorse it. A teller marked it "end, missing" and sent it back so the customer could supply the desired notation.

The customer brought it back in person. "Look," he said, "there's no end missing from this check. Both ends are there. Why doncha get some new glasses?"

It only took a min. to strtn things out.

For more than half a century, Red Bluff was the head of navigation on the Sacramento River.

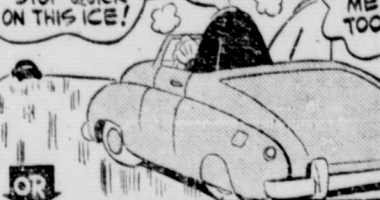

Card of Thanks

I wish to thank the policemen and the firemen of Daly City and the host of friends for their kind words of sympathy and floral offerings in my hour of sorrow.

MRS. PETER DORMOY

Right or wrong? YOU BE THE JUDGE!

I'M GONNA STAY WAY BACK OF THIS GUY - I'M AFRAID WE COULDN'T STOP QUICK ON THIS ICE!

LOOK AT HIS FACE IN HIS MIRROR - HE'S AFRAID HE CAN'T STOP QUICK!

A "cable" is 0.1 nautical miles, or 608 feet.

Canada produced just over three million ounces of gold in 1947.

NOW IS THE HOUR

One of California's newcomers presented his first local paycheck at a San Diego branch of Bank of America. The teller looked the check over, nodded, and, thinking in terms of denominations of bills, asked: "How would you like to have it?"

"I would like to have it," the customer replied firmly, "Now!"

CASTLE CRAGS STATE PARK

Castle Crags State Park, located in the northwest corner of Shasta county, is reported to have been the site of the "Battle of the Crags," which took place in 1855 and in which the white settlers drove the Indians up into the crags. It was during this battle that the poet Joaquin Miller was wounded by an arrow. Miller lived at the site and drew inspiration for some of his work from the lofty peaks that surrounded him.

The U. S. Coast Guard maintains more than 36,000 aids to navigation.

The first railway concession in the Argentine Republic dates from 1854.

IMPORTANT DATES THIS WEEK IN CALIFORNIA

December 31, 1946 — President Truman declared end of hostilities, World War II.

January 1 — New Year's Day.

January 1, 1949 — New postal rates in effect.

January 2, 1847 — Battle of Santa Clara concluded U.S. conquest of northern California.

Flow of Electrons

A flow of electrons along the optic nerve to and from the brain is believed by some experts to take place during the seeing process, according to Better Vision Institute.

Virgin Islands

The United States took formal possession of the Virgin Islands, St. Thomas, St. Croix and St. John, the former Danish West Indies, on March 28, 1917.

CHECK HEADLIGHTS

Poorly adjusted headlight beams are a major cause of night blindness among motorists, warns the Public Safety Department of the National Automobile Club. Wise motorists will protect themselves as well as their fellows by making a regular check on their lights for proper focus and working order.

Hangers for Garments

Every garment should be on a separate hanger. This keeps it in shape and avoids wrinkles. Hangers which are covered with a rough fabric will keep clothes from slipping and keep the shoulders in shape.

Horned Caribou

Unlike other members of the deer tribe, both sexes of the Barren Ground caribou have horns, although the horns of the female are shorter than those of the male.

CRYSTAL CAVE

Crystal Cave, located in Sequoia National Park, is reported to contain fantastic crystal-like stalactite formations. A gushing subterranean stream has cut through solid marble to form a maze of passageways that lead into wider areas or "rooms."

Green Skin

Little green men do not exist solely in nightmares. According to the Encyclopaedia Britannica, the complexions of the Punans, natives of Borneo, have a greenish hue because they never expose themselves to direct sunlight, but live perpetually in the half-light of the forest.

President's Omen

Neither political party in the 60-year period has reelected its candidate for the presidency immediately after losing an off-year election.

STATE LICENSED HEATING CONTRACTOR

"Foolies Of 1949" At Geary Theatre

Dante, who has been acclaimed in all parts of the world as the great master of magic, came to the Geary Theatre Sunday, December 26, for a two-week engagement with his latest mystery revue, "Foolies of 1949."

This great artist has just returned from the Garrick Theatre in London, England, where he had one of the most successful "runs" in the history of the theatre by breaking all past records for attendance at that house.

At the Geary Theatre Dante will present his latest extravaganza of mystery "The Foolies of 1949" with its gorgeous costuming, beautiful scenery, world's latest mystery illusions, good clean wholesome comedy for anyone from 5 to 95, and a stage full of bright snappy looking young assistants many having had years of experience in working with the old master in presenting his latest Mystery Revue.

Principal co-worker and "Leading Lady" that has for so many years assisted Dante in all parts of the world on his tours, is that famed Australian beauty Mei-Yo Miller and her Mystery Girls, who has so many times been proclaimed the equal of the most heralded of the famous Ziegfeld Girls.

Dante's latest production of "Foolies of 1949" will also present his very beautiful and mystifying Chinese Water Spectacle, "Fountainia," in which over 500 gallons of water is used to present this baffling illusion. This illusion alone combines the deftness of a brilliant illusionist with all the art of a skillful stage producer. Dante's astonishing repertoire ranges from card manipulation, sleight-of-hand and conjuring to the most complicated feats of bodily transference and disappearance that are breathtaking in their daring and novelty, and are more varied than a musical, more novel than vaudeville, more intriguing than a drama, and funnier than a comedy. Performances will be presented every night with matinees Saturday and Sunday. Special popular prices will be in effect so that the entire family can witness the spectacular and mammoth new stage production of Dante's "Foolies of 1949."

STEELHEAD TROUT AND SALMON — Ends December 31 in waters of Pacific Ocean and all bays except those east of Carquinez Bridge in Sacramento-San Joaquin Rivers. Ends February 28 in some sections. Ends January 31 in specified streams of northwestern counties. See official abstract of angling regulations.

QUAIL — Ends December 31. Bag limit: eight per day or in possession, 16 per week. Shooting hours: one-half hour before sunrise to one-half hour after sunset.

TREE SQUIRRELS — Ends December 31 in Districts 1, 1 1/2, 23 and 25 only. Bag limit: two per day or in possession, 12 per season.

RABBITS — Ends December 31 in southern California Districts 4, 4 1/2, 4 3/4, 19, and 22. Cottontail and brush rabbit bag limit: eight per day, 16 per week. No limit on jack rabbits. Shooting hours: one-half hour before sunrise to one-half hour after sunset.

New Year's Eve marks the end of several types of fishing and hunting seasons in California, reminds the Division of Fish and Game.

The end of the calendar year puts a stop to hunting for bear, quail, tree squirrels, brush and cottontail rabbits. The open season on jackrabbits closes in southern California one-half hour after sunset December 31, but hunting is legal throughout the year elsewhere in the State.

Steelhead trout and salmon fishing will end the last day of the year in waters of the Pacific Ocean and all bays except those east of the Carquinez Bridge in the Sacramento and San Joaquin rivers. All waters in Merced county, except a portion of the Merced River, will be ruled out to salmon and trout angling, as will portions of the following rivers: Klamath, Mokelumne, San Joaquin, Tuolumne, Stanislaus, Sacramento, Consumnes, and Smith rivers.

A 1949 angling license is required for the taking of any type of fish or shellfish after December 31. The president of the Associated Sportsmen of California wants to consider a series of New Year's resolutions for 1949.

Lloyd Souler of Rio Vista, recently elected head of the association of northern California rod and gun clubs, believes better hunting and fishing will result if every license buyer resolves:

1. To obey fish and game laws;
2. To handle firearms with care;
3. To take the minimum of fish and game instead of the maximum bag limit;
4. To cooperate with farmers and landowners throughout the year—not just during open hunting or fishing seasons;
5. To prevent forest fires; and
6. To act like a sportsman.
